TRACK ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

JUSTIN PERCIVAL • Farmingdale State College
Junior • Melville, NY/St. Anthony's

Percival earns NJAC Track Athlete of the Week honors for the fourth consecutive week after traveling to Staten Island to compete at the NYC Gotham Cup meet. He placed second in a field of 82 competitors in the 60 meters with a runner-up time of 6.94. He also finished seventh in a field of 77 runners in the 200 meters with a time of 22.21. He also was a member of the Rams' 4x400 meter relay which placed sixth in a field of 19 teams with a time of 3:26.67. Percival currently holds the top NCAA Division III time recorded in the 60 meters this season (6.87).

FIELD ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

EARNEST DANIEL • Rowan University
Sophomore • Woolwich, NJ/Kingsway Regional

Daniel earns NJAC Indoor Track Athlete of the Week honors after traveling to Staten Island to compete at the NYC Gotham Cup meet. He tied for fifth place among competitors in the high jump event with a mark of 1.94 meters. Daniel currently holds the 28th-best high jump mark recorded in all of NCAA Division III this season (1.95 meters).

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

DAVE ETIENNE • New Jersey City University
Freshman • Jersey City, NJ/Dickinson

Etienne becomes the first Gothic Knight student-athlete to earn a weekly NJAC indoor track & field honor since the return of the program to varsity status. He traveled to Staten Island to compete at the NYC Gotham Cup meet where he placed 13th in a field of 111 competitors in the 400 meters with a personal-best and an ECAC-qualifying time of 50.91. The selection of Etienne marks the first time that a Gothic Knight has been named NJAC Rookie of the Week in men's indoor track & field since February 15, 2010.
