OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
SARA CORSON • Rutgers-Newark
Junior • Midfielder • Metuchen, NJ/Metuchen

Corson earns NJAC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the second time this season after notching eight points in a 2-1 week of play for Rutgers-Newark. She opened the week by assisting on the game-winning goal during a 1-0 non-conference road win at Mt. St. Mary. Two nights later she registered three goals for her first career hat-trick in a 3-0 non-conference road win at FDU-Florham. She wrapped up the week by assisting on her team’s lone goal during a 2-1 NJAC road defeat at Richard Stockton. Corson currently leads the NJAC in both points (26) and goals (11).

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
JORDAN DOWNS • The College of New Jersey
Senior • Back • Brick, NJ/Brick Memorial

Downs earns NJAC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the third time this season after helping the No. 17 ranked Lions post a pair of shutouts in a three-day span. In wins over Farmingdale State and NJCU, he anchored TCNJ’s defense which did not allow a single shot in either of the matches. Downs is a key part of a Lions’ defense that currently ranks second in the NJAC in team goals against average (0.25).

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
MELISSA KELLY • Rowan University
Freshman • Midfielder • Parsippany, NJ/DePaul Catholic

Kelly earns NJAC Rookie of the Week honors after helping the Profs remain unbeaten in conference play with a 1-1 double-overtime NJAC draw with No. 10 Montclair State. In Rowan’s lone contest of the week, she netted a goal off of a corner kick in the third minute which marked the first score that the Red Hawks surrendered in their last 11 matches. Kelly currently ranks tied for 16th in the NJAC in goals (4).
